

2016-2017 Financial Form Cover Letter

Welcome to a new year at CBTBI. Enclosed, you will find the Financial Form. Not all payment categories on the new form apply to everyone. Please disregard the categories that do not apply to you or your family.

There is a 5% increase from last year. Categories are as follows:

Family < 30	$1,428	Individual < 30	$852
Family 30 - 35	$1,716	Individual 30 - 35	$1,020
Family > 35	$2,040	Individual > 35	$1,176

- A family is two adults, at least one of whom is Jewish and who live together at the same address, and any of their children under 26 years old.
- An individual is a single Jewish person, with or without children under 26 years old, or a Jewish member of an interfaith couple where there are no children under 26 years old and the non-Jewish partner chooses not to participate in synagogue activities, or the single non-Jewish parent of a Jewish child under the age of 26.

We are pleased to say that our Hebrew School tuition policy last year was such a success, that we will be repeating it again this year.

1. We offer FREE tuition for Kindergarten-2nd Grade to our members. This does not cover the cost of books which remains $50/child.
2. There is a 5% discount for the second child and a 50% discount on the third, fourth, etc. children. The discount will be taken off the children with the lowest paid tuition and does not impact the cost of books, which remains $50/child.

Our tuition rates have increased $25 and are as follows:

Kindergarten-2nd Grade: Free
3rd -6th Grade: $600
7th Grade: $650
Confirmation I, II, or III: $485

Synagogue dues should not be a burden, so as always, we offer reduced dues and tuition to those in need. The Financial Assistance application is available on our homepage (cbtbi.org), under membership. Please complete the form and return it to Allison Harris, as soon as possible, or contact her at aharris888@comcast.net or 609-506-5687. All requests will be carefully reviewed and the amount of assistance determined by the Finance Secretary and President. All requests for assistance remain strictly confidential.

Please mail all forms and payment to:
